

Laurel has benefitted very much from this program. The emphasis on respect - for the instructors, for fellow students, for others - is an important aspect of the training.

Everyone is very supportive of each other - which creates a good atmosphere in which everyone can and does learn. Margo de Camp

---

For parents of beginners an intro sheet would be great:
What is a basis? a technique, a form? Should I watch class?
How should I support my student at home? Why are the technique
~~the~~ descriptions in the book often different?